FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCIAL MATTERS were very dull again yesterday; the beginning of a new month has usually some stir about product. Hay was also in active de It, but this present April has not shown | mand and stronger." the accustomed activity. The New Or- Quotations are for round lots, unless leans Picayune, of Tuesday, says: "The extraordinary duliness of the winter has beer, followed by a sprightly demand for ar commodation at the banks. The impression prevails that the coming summer will be more pregnant with profits for bankers than usual during that season of the year in this city." The St. Louis Republican, of Tuesday, has also an encouraging word: "The feeling upon the opening of the week in the local money market yesterday was better and more encouraging than for many weeks past. At the banks more than the usual amount of counter business was done. and financial institutions report a marked improvement in the demand for loans." The Globe of the same city says: "The week closes with great ease, and general supply of money in great excess." The Cincinnati Enquirer reports: "The applications for loans were liberal and an increase in checking was generally reported, and in nearly all de-partments there was more animation." The Louisvelle Journal, speaking of renewals, mentions the following peculiar instance of conscientiousness: There is a certain degree of prejudice be minds of many against asking for avors of this class, and some have Pleferred to borrow from one bank to pay another, though the same terms were obtained with both." The New York Horald informs us that "a million dollars' worth of silver has been forwarded from the Pacific coast to the Philadelphia mint to be coined into five cent and twenty cent pieces. The resumption of small change will be attemp'ed as soon as a reserve of $10,000,-000 as accumulated " The east is showing some fear of western rivalry. The daston Commercial Bulletin shrewdly apprehends that western river improvements, and particularly Eads' jetty work, mean the transfer of the control of the trade of West India, Central and South America from the Atlantic cities to the Mississippi valley. Cheap river transit will tell its story yet; and if every commercial city on the banks of the west-ern rivers would join in an effort to cultivate trade with Mexico, as a commencing point, an era of wonderful would soon set in. The supply of exchange in our mar-ket was quite limited again yesterday, with no great demand; buyng on New York at par, and selling at premium; buying on New Orleans at discount, and selling at par. Gold quoted at 114 in New York at neon; ere brokers were paying 118@1131. Nothing west doing in city paper, for a perusal of the charter has only mystified everything and cleared up nothing; the instructions given to the city taxpayers, founded on the construction put uron the financial portion of that document, will perhaps help, when it is made public, to dissipate the prevailing darkness. We hear of a sale, at 40, of two Raleigh railroad bonds, with two past coupons. The position of the court in

THE COTTON MARKET was dull; buyers were indifferent; there was some looking around, but little disposition was manifested to buy; spinners appear to have lost activity, orders being, apparently, less plentiful. Telegrams reported no change of prices in the principal markets: New York was quiet at 16gc; New Orleans quiet at 16gc; Liverol firm at 8 1-16d; Savannah, 16le; Mobile, 15 c; Charleston, 16 c; Galveston, 15 c; Memphis, 162. The market was quiet; sales 525 bales, which spinners took 300, exporters speculators 100 bales. The New York Bulletin on Monday reports: "In quite dull, and shows nothing of very ecided interest. Regular legitimate buyers have manifested little interest, our spinners making only a small attendance, and exporters, notwithstand-ing the continued stiff tone of foreign advices, holding off for want of an assured margin. There was some demand, but it was entirely of a speculative character, and only a figure something under current quotations, which still remain without alteration. The official count of stock shows a falling behind of the running account about nineteen thousand bales, but this is to be at-tributed to the absence of sufficient allowance for amounts forwarded to spinners on receipts at this port 'to order.' For future delivery, with about the same hase as yesterday, somewhat strengthened by the small estimates of easy at 5 to 3 per receipts for the coming week, the market has continued very firm and a further advance in values was established on nearly all months, with a fair general business doing. Then came wheat, with an unusually excited market; the demand was active, and up went prices on both winter and spring from one to three cents, while May option of No 2 red jumped fully five and a half to six and a half cents. Cern followed suit, with an active and excited market, values being appreciated on all descriptions, and still tending up at the close. Oats wheeled into line with everything booming, and prices trying to reach the top figures; the market was still advancing at the close. She lies opposite the government warehouse, imbedded in the ice.....It comes by grapevine that Cap-tain Bob Wise, of the Parker, came near getting into trouble with a six-footer at one of the Ohio river ports. The stranger stepped aboard the boat, and walked leisurely back aft the boilers, peering round in a searching kind of way, until his gaze seemed fastened on some object, when he thrust each hand in a vest pocket. Captain Wise saw the motion, and stepped rapidly up to the stranger, remarking to him with characteristic emphasis: "See here, this boat has just come off the docks at Cincinnati, was thorough-ly inspected, and I don't propose to pay any more inspector's tariffs for

NOTICE.

BY virtue of the authority vested in us by the deed of trust executed to us as trustees on the 10th May, 1857, by the city of Memphis, by A. H. Douglas, Mayor, and which is registered in the Register's office of Snelby county, Tennessee, in book 29, page 446, et seq., and which conveys to us the property hereinafter described in trust to secure the payment of $300,000 of the bonds of the Memphis and Luttle Rock Railroad Company, and upon request of certain of the holders of said bonds, we will,

On the 3d day of May, 1875, proceed to expose the said property to sale, on the premises, for cash:
Said property is described in said deed as "the Navy Yard property, being the same tract or parcel of ground designated on the map of the city of Memphis and its environs, made by Todd & Crider, as the United States Navai Depot," and which, as appears from said map, is all the real estate which lies west of Chickasaw street, between the north line of Auction street and the north line of Market street.

Levee Reflections.

Among the passengers of the Andy Baum were Mr. C. Winston, engineer of the ferryboat John Overton, and his accomplished bride (nee Migs Jessie Nuthden, of Covington, Kentucky), just returned from Cincinnati. We learn that Mr. Winston has selected Mound City, Arkansas, as his future residence. The Baum had an elegant company of passengers this trip, some of whom were in pursuit of pleasure, but most of them on business trips, by which is indicated that Memphis and Cincinnati are brought doorneighbors by the excellent lines of packets plying regular between the two cities, and by which a mutual commercial interest is growing to handsome proportions.....The City of Chester, Captain T.
